

NEWS OF THE DAY CONCERNING CHICAGO

Sunrise, 7:17; sunset, 4:38.

Twenty-five violation of Sunday closing law reported to police yesterday.

Mrs. Neal Perrin, 1382 Randolph, found dead in bed by woman visitor. Natural causes.

Jacob Goldman, boarder, 1120 Hickory av., arrested. Threw bricks through windows when refused admission to boarding house.

Nathan Kessler, 13, 1313 S. Morgan, had air rifle. Michael Bernstein, 7, 1303 S. Morgan, shot in hand.

Joseph Langland, 1029 S. California av., lost 85 cents to bandits.

Unidentified man dropped dead on sidewalk in front of 543 W. Madison.

Mrs. Elvine Duncan, 3537 Reta, found unconscious in kitchen of home. Two gas jets burning; windows closed; no oxygen. May recover.

Joseph Topper, jewelry salesman, Los Angeles, lost $33 in card game in Hotel Morrison. Wm. Lewis, resident, arrested.

Mrs. Antonia Lowew, 3510 W. North av., found dead. Gas hose slipped from stove; no windows open; asphyxiated.

Louis Simonson, 3315 Warner av., sheet metal worker, fell down stairs. Dead.

Mrs. Belle Woodlock, 4443 Calumet av., arrested. John C. Peebles, 4547 Indiana av., says she took clothes from his house.

Frank M. Rogers, broker, hurt by auto near I. C. tracks on Midway. Thos. Grady, 7265 Coles av., owner of machine.

J. C. Monaghan and L. R. Pospitt, drivers Yellow Cab Co., arrested. Racing up Cottage Grove av., police say.

Elizabeth Zimmerman, 6234 Vernon av., victim of purse snatcher who obtained $2.

Joseph Keating, 348 Wendell, hostler in barns, 7056 S. Wabash av., trampled to death by horse in stall.

Michael Harrington, Madison, Wis., arrested on wife abandonment charge. Will be sent back.

Joseph Michaels, 111th st. and Trumbull av., badly injured by auto near home. Autoist sped away unidentified.

George Goss, 21, to be sterilized by Dr. H. J. Haiselden in German-American hospital. Mother requests it.

Mrs. Mary Ward, 74, 7246 Coles av., instantly killed by I. C. passenger train at 72d. No flagman, witnesses say.

Police of Niles Center on duty to prevent unloading of explosives into Du Pont warehouse nearby. Fear blast.

Mrs. May Delucia, 1240 Washington blvd., stabbed five times. Police seek husband and three companions.

Chicago fire engines called to aid in quenching $75,000 fire in department store of Ira Rosenberg, Evanston.

Mrs. Nettie Van Loon, 3547 Ainslie av., hurled to death when "L" train struck auto at Eastwood and N. Albany avs. No warning, charge.

Comptroller Eugene Pike ill at his home with tonsillitis. Severe case.

Mrs. Julian T. Fitzgerald, 3128 Warren av., severely burned. Friction set fire to gasoline while she was cleaning gloves.

Harry Eastman, Earl Wilcox, Harry Moss and wife, Ethel, arrested. Police say they found stolen silverware in flat at 2429 Prairie av.

WAR BULLETINS

London.—Turkish forces estimated at more than 200,000 have been released for use in other theaters of war by action of allies in completely abandoning Dardanelles campaign.

They comprise prize corps of Turkish army, hard fighters seasoned in fierce battles on Gallipoli. Greater part of this force, it is believed here, will be thrown at once into proposed